

Attendance Policy

ACME Corporation | Attendance and Working Hours Policy - HR-POL-002 - Effective 01 January 2025

1. Working Hours

The standard working week at ACME Corporation is 40 hours, worked across five days from Monday to Friday.

The standard working day is 9 hours including a one-hour lunch break, typically from 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM.

Core hours during which every employee is expected to be available are 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

Employees may shift their start time between 8:00 AM and 10:30 AM with the agreement of their reporting manager, provided core hours are covered.

2. Attendance Recording

Attendance is recorded automatically through office access card swipes and through VPN sign-in on work from home days.

Employees must record a minimum of 8 working hours per day and an average of 40 hours per week.

Attendance regularisation for a missed swipe must be submitted in the ACME HR portal within five working days of the affected date.

3. Late Arrival and Early Departure

Arrival after 10:30 AM without prior information to the reporting manager is recorded as a late arrival.

Three late arrivals in a calendar month result in a deduction of half a day of casual leave.

Leaving before 5:00 PM without approval is recorded as an early departure and is treated in the same way as a late arrival.

4. Unauthorised Absence

Absence without an approved leave application or intimation to the reporting manager is treated as unauthorised absence and is unpaid.

Three or more consecutive days of unauthorised absence trigger a formal notice from Human Resources.

Continued unauthorised absence beyond eight consecutive working days may be treated as voluntary abandonment of employment.

5. Overtime and Compensatory Off

Employees required to work on a declared holiday or a weekend at the request of their manager are eligible for a compensatory off.

Compensatory off must be availed within 30 calendar days of the day worked, after which it lapses.

Compensatory off is not encashable and does not add to the earned leave balance.
