

Employee Handbook

ACME Corporation | Employee Handbook - Edition 6 - January 2025

1. Welcome to ACME

ACME Corporation is a fictional technology company used for demonstration purposes. It designs industrial automation software and employs about 1,800 people across four offices.

This handbook summarises the policies that shape day-to-day working life at ACME. Where the handbook and a specific policy document differ, the specific policy document takes precedence.

2. Our Values

- Customer obsession: we start with the customer problem and work backwards.
- Craft: we take pride in the quality and clarity of what we build.
- Candour: we raise concerns early, directly and respectfully.
- Care: we look after each other's wellbeing as much as our results.

3. Employment Basics

The probation period for new employees is 6 months from the date of joining. Confirmation is subject to a satisfactory performance review.

The notice period is 30 days during probation and 60 days after confirmation, for both the employee and the company.

Salary is credited on the last working day of each month. Payslips are available in the ACME HR portal from the first working day of the following month.

The performance review cycle runs twice a year, in April and October. Annual increments are effective from 1 July.

4. Time Off at a Glance

12 casual leaves, 15 sick leaves and 18 earned leaves are available each leave year. Full details are in the Leave Policy.

12 paid public holidays are observed each year, of which 2 are restricted holidays chosen by the employee.

Employees may work from home up to 2 days per week under the hybrid work model.
